Holz&Feuer Pizza

The wood&fire pizza is baked at over 400°C in our wood-fired oven.
By resting the dough for up to 72 hours and adding a little yeast, the typical aroma develops.

The special flour and high quality ingredients from the region make our wood&fire pizza unique among pizzas.

Since our dough pieces are all freshly topped and baked, it is not always possible for us to serve all main courses at the same time as the Holz&Feuer Pizza. We apologize for this.

Not only a great idea as a main course, but also as an appetizer to share around the table!

For your information, the slightly burnt edge is a quality feature and a guarantee of a successful Holz&Feuer pizza.
